

A Quiet Day for love of the Earth

January 25, 2020

10:00 am - 4:30 pm

Wandsworth Friends Meeting House
59 Wandsworth High Street
London, SW182PT

How can our spiritual and creative practices help us address big challenges ?

Linda Murgatroyd will lead a day using guided meditation arts, crafts, personal prayer and reflection, writing or research, to help us bring the Light of Love to bear on environmental challenges or other issues that we may be struggling with.

Most of the day will be in silence, with some introductions and suggestions during the day, and optional sharing at the end.

Come and explore how this approach might help you or others you know or serve.

Arrivals , registration and refreshments, 10 am. 10.30 start.

Please bring a contribution to a shared vegetarian lunch. Drinks and teatime cake provided!

All materials will be provided, and no special craft skills are needed. You may also like to bring a journal, sewing equipment/materials and/or mobile phone/tablet if you use them.

All welcome. Free (donations welcome).

Booking essential (numbers limited) : email lovingearthproject@gmail.com

Linda is Clerk of the Quaker Arts Network and initiated the Loving Earth Project. She has long facilitated art and spirituality workshops for people from varied spiritual traditions or none and also practices spiritual accompaniment in an ecumenical context.

Loving Earth Project see lovingearth-project.uk

Venue and directions: <http://www.wandsworthquakermeeting.org>

Enquiries: lovingearthproject@gmail.com