

Loving Earth Project

Caring for the world we love

An international community textile art project.

The Loving Earth Project helps people engage with environmental crisis creatively and without being overwhelmed. We are making textile panels (30x30xcm) to illustrate things we love that are under threat, and what we are doing about it. These are being exhibited in groups around the country to inspire others.

All are welcome to join the project. There are lots of resources to help you on our website, and we will be holding free events online and at Wimbledon Library.

Stitch and chat at Wimbledon Library (socially distanced)
35 Wimbledon Hill road, London Sw19 7NB, 2 minutes from Wimbledon station.

Wednesday 2nd February and Tuesday 1 March, 1.30 to 3pm.

Just turn up, bringing your work in progress, ideas, questions etc. Some materials will be available, but please bring your own if you can. All welcome - you don't need to be an expert stitcher!

Online events (on Zoom):

Thursday 10th February, 7pm : Loving Earth exhibitions

(a conversation for those interested in supporting the project, including helping with exhibitions)

Tuesday 15th February : Get started on your panel workshop

For details/bookings for Zoom events, and dates and locations of planned exhibitions, and further events, see <http://lovingearth-project.uk/events-2/> To join our mailing list, please email us.
